Increase your business by partnering with the U.S. Trade and Development Agency. From fiscal year 2002 to present, USTDA has completed more than 800 activities with Maryland, Virginia, and District of Columbia companies totaling over $103.4 million. In addition, MD, VA and DC companies have obtained 222 separate contracts with foreign entities in 58 countries around the world.

Take advantage of this unique chance -- to hear directly from USTDA officials and to learn about grants and opportunities for Maryland, Virginia and District of Columbia consultants and exporters.

Click here to register online: RSVPs are required by September 8th. For more information, please call 410.974.5090. Photo ID required (no exceptions) for entry into the World Bank. Please allow ample time for on-site security clearance. Please note that there can be no walk-ins at the door, and that all participants must match the names on the registration list.

Since the U.S. Trade and Development Agency's inception in 1981, it has been associated with nearly $30 billion in U.S. exports - or approximately $39 in exports for every dollar invested in USTDA activities. In Fiscal Year 2007, USTDA obligated nearly $46 million in support of the developmental goals of project sponsors in 65 host countries around the world. Of this, USTDA funded 63 technical assistance activities, 43 feasibility studies, 31 orientation visits, and 3 conferences.

The Export-Import Bank of the United States (Ex-Im Bank) is an independent U.S. Government agency that provides financial support for the international sales of U.S. goods and services. In almost 70 years, Ex-Im Bank has supported more than $400 billion in U.S. exports.
